The WEEKLY REGISTER.

LONDON, SATURDAY, July 24, 1731. NUMB. LXVII.

To the AUTHOR of the WEEKLY REGISTER.

SIR,

WAILING against the Government has so long been in Practice, that the whole Extent of Satire and Invective has been exhausted in the Service, and, in Spite of every Change of Torture, will answer the Purposes of Faction no more; the Public is clog'd with the dull Repetitions of the same prostituted Arguments, and, whatever is the Artifice of the Week, despair of Truth and Entertainment together.——As soon as ever their Topics are nam'd in the Front of the Paper, we are already acquainted with the Sequel, and foresee the whole Process of the Debate; they are like the Tunes of an Organ to a Raree Shew, limited in Number, and so much the same in Principles of Harmony, that 'tis exceeding hard to distinguish one Composition from another.——The Laws and Elements of such Writings are become merely mechanical, and are methodiz'd by Rule, like a Huswife's Receipt for a Ragout or a Soup, and consequently the Works of the whole Party will do as well for one Minister as another, will distinguish the late L—— G——n, as well as Sir R—— W——, and suit as well with King Alfred, as his present Majesty.——This will be demonstrated by the Instructions given, from the Faction, to a young Author, who had just enter'd the List against the Government, and, like Socrates's Alcibiades, did not know where to begin his Patriotism, or fix a Position to distress the Ministry.——The following is a true Copy of this wonderful Secret, and has serv'd all the modern Patriots from Mr. D'Anvers down to the Chelsea Monarch and the Grub-street Journal.

Instructions to NICHOLAS NIBBLE, Esq; for the Service of the good old Cause; or, the Art of writing Libels against the Government.

Imprimis, You are to make yourself thoroughly acquainted with the Doctrine of Parallels, from Sejanus to Menzikoff, and learn all the Secrets of Falshood and Misrepresentation; you are to aggravate Circumstances in one Place, omit in another, and reconcile the whole with a certain modern Art, call'd Lying, to make the Pictures answer in every Feature, or, in School-Language, make the Simile run upon all Four.——Always remembring to put Villain enough into the Composition, right, or wrong, and swear most devoutly every Stroke was copied from the Life; it will answer the Purpose of our Political Inquisition to a Miracle. The Devils we paint on the Criminal's Out-side, will be esteem'd by the Populace as ingrav'd on his Heart, and they'll destroy him with as much Pleasure, as a November Pope, for the Sake of his Habit only.

Item, If general Accusations, or malicious Parallels, should fail of Success, acquire the Knack of personal Slander, and exposing Family Secrets; give every innocent or indifferent Action the most criminal Turn in your Power, and extort Treasons out of the most friendly Conversations; never once pause to think of Truth, Decency, or Good Manners, they are Enemies to our Cause, and to be avoided with all the Caution imaginable.——Such pretended Revelations of Secret History take mightily with the Multitude, and, like Blinds to a Window, present a Groupe of false Images to conceal the True.——It mayn't be amiss to call Names now and then, without any Regard to Merit or Quality; it will be esteem'd Flame and Spirit, and what deserves the Pillory, will meet with Success and Approbation.

Item, You are to roar aloud at certain Intervals that Liberty and Property are in imminent Danger, or, at least, that it behooves your Country-men to be on their Guard, for fear they should; to rave about Captures, the British Flag, Gibraltar, and Dunkirk, to ask impertinent Questions, which you are sure no Body will think it worth their while to answer; to cover every Thing with dismal Apprehensions, and prate a Rhapsody of Stuff that will serve for Amusement, tho' 'tis impossible to be understood.——In such a Circumstance I have known a few innocent Words do a World of Mischief, and a politic Ambiguity has done the Cause very seasonable Service.——For Example, when we have struck too bold a Stroke, when we have affirm'd Impossibilities upon our Honour, and the People begin to suspect our Honesty and Intelligence together, we immediately call a new Cause, and hide the Discovery in a Cloud of our own Raising.——This is call'd throwing out a Barrel to the Whale, and infallibly saves the Vessel.

Item, Pretend to be a hard Student, turn over the Records of ancient History, select the worst Monarch you can lay your Hands on, and serve him up as a Sacrifice to the People; if there are any Circumstances in his Reign that, in any Decree, tally with the present, mark the Likeness strongly, that the Ignorant may imagine the Figures are as much alike as the Frame.——This is an Affair tho' that requires some Caution, therefore make the Rising-Sun two or three glaring Compliments, that you may have an Opportunity to justify your Loyalty, in Case it should be called into Question, and give the Lye to your Accusers.——This is shaking Hands with a Man before a Duel, and pleading absolute Honesty while you pick a Pocket.

Item, Proclaim furious War with standing Armies in Time of Peace, and give the Hessians no Quarter on any Account: This is making our Court to all the Inns and Ale-houses about the Kingdom, and propagating the Sale of our Paper; like the Devil we must play at small Game rather than stand out, and, if we can't disband the Army by declaring ourselves Enemies to the Sword, we can keep them in Awe, by threatening them with an annual Reduction.——Those Troops are great Bars to the Cause, the sooner they are remov'd the better.——We are not safe while we are surrounded with our Adversaries, and, if we could master them, like the Wolves in the Fable when they persuaded the Sheep to lay aside the Mastiffs who protected them, 'twould be our Turns to reign in their Stead.

Item, Enumerate the Taxes whether you have Occasion or no; and inveigh against Bribery and Corruption, like a true disoblig'd Courtier, as if you were really an Enemy to both.——This Appearance of Disinterestedness and Frugality will look as if you knew no other Interest but that of your Country, and, consequently, you are the fittest Man in the World to be trusted with the Reformation.——I have known many a flaming Patriot, who has boasted, for Years, to purify the Constitution, and separate the Ore from the Dross; I have known many such trusted with the Operation on that Account, and the Public, and he, like the Traveller and Jove, divided the Gains.——This is playing the Chymist with the Common-wealth, searching for the Philosopher's Stone, promising Mountains of Gold, and making the Public pay for the Disappointment.

Item, Assume the noble Character of Patriot with as much Boldness as if 'twas really your own; it has always been confess'd the best Cloak for Treason that ever was invented, and has been frequently worn with Success.——Never inquire whether it fits you or no, if no Body else does, you are safe, and may deceive Hypocrisy itself.——'Tis an admirable Snare to delude the People, and, tho' they have been cheated so often already, they are as credulous as ever, and as ready as ever to swallow the Bait.——Milton says that Satan pretended to be a Patriot, when he decoy'd the Angels from their Obedience, and, if the Name was amicable enough to deceive them, how shall the Sons of Frailty escape? 'Tis true we have not much derogated from our great Original, nay 'tis possible we have equall'd, tho' we could not improve it, most certainly it has not been for Want of our Endeavours, and, if you'll follow strictly these Instructions, 'tis ten to one but a Share of his Glory will be yours.

To the AUTHOR of the WEEKLY REGISTER.

SIR,

I Have observ'd, with a great Deal of Pleasure, that our News-Papers are every Day fill'd with Accounts of amicable Deeds of Compassion and Humanity, in Favour of the unhappy Sufferers at Tiverton, Blandford, and Ramsey; there seems to be a glorious Emulation risen among the People, and they vie with each other in Friendliness and Generosity; there is no Need of any Argument to excite them, no Persuasion to prompt them, to exert this amiable Virtue; the Heart of the Public is turn'd as 'twere one Man, and daily Benefactions do Honour to the Nation in general: Let us not complain of our Vices, without extolling our Virtues; every meritorious Action deserves Praise, as much as its contrary deserves Censure, perhaps more, if we consider that human Nature is frail on one Side, and that 'tis more eligible to applaud than condemn on the other. For this Reason I thought myself oblig'd to make my Countrymen this public Acknowledgment of their uncommon Tenderness, for the Sufferings of their Fellow-Creatures, and congratulate every particular Benefactor on his noble Concern for their Service.——Those, who were able to be largely instrumental to the Relief of so extensive a Misfortune, will be happy in contemplating that they were inabled by Providence to put the Desires of their Hearts in Practice; those, who are more confin'd in their Circumstances, may satisfy themselves by reflecting that, out of their Little, they have made a Sacrifice to Virtue, and evidenc'd an equal Generosity of Temper; those, whose hard Fortune deny'd them the divine Pleasure of doing Good, even those have indulg'd the warmest Wishes in Favour of the Unhappy, and have greatly griev'd that they were not able to make their Wishes effectual.

So widely, so extensively has this benevolent Spirit prevail'd; so much have we interested ourselves in the Support of the Miserable.——'Tis a Pleasure to the good Man's Soul to see Virtue so universal, to see Compassion so indulg'd, to see Beneficence contagious from the Throne to the lowest Subject; when I consider my Countrymen in this Light I am ready to forgive all their Faults, and all their Follies; so many Virtues result from this beautiful Principle, that I know not how to condemn the Character it belongs to; Duty to the Divine Being is justly the first Dictate of Religion, but Humanity is the most useful in a World of Evil and Misfortune.

I am, Sir, &c.

SATURDAY, July 17.

The other attack'd a Gentleman on Horseback, who was talking with a Person in the other Coach, and robbed him, but in the mean Time the Gentlemen all got out, and having Pistols, stood on their Guard, at the Sight of which the Rogues rode off, greatly frighted by one of the Gentlemen's firing a Pistol at them.

Of ſome of theſe Ingredients ſo dried, make Tea, as you do common Tea, with boiling hot Water, as ſtrong as you like to drink it, but the ſtronger the better, and drink three, four, or more Tea-cups full of it, Blood warm, ſweetned with coarſe Sugar, every Morning and Afternoon, putting into each Cup of it, at leaſt half a Spoonful, or rather more, of the expreſs'd Oil of Beech Nuts, freſh drawn, (which in this Caſe has been experienced to be vaſtly preferable to Oil of Almonds, or any other Oil) ſtirring them about together, and ſo to continue it for as long as you ſee Occaſion.

Robbery, &c. On Monday Night Mr. Burdett, a Diſtiller at Lambeth, on his Return from the Bank-ſide in Southwark, was knock'd down and robb'd of Money and Notes to the Value of 30l. near the Dog and Duck in St. George's-fields, by two Foot-pads, after which they made off towards the Mint, threatening him with immediate Death if he attempted to purſue them.——Yeſterday two Men were committed to Tothill fields Bridewell, for ſtealing of Lead from ſome new Buildings in Petty-France, Weſtminſter.——The ſame Day two Men were committed to Newgate by Juſtice Giffard, on the Oath of Joſeph Baker, for ſtealing ſeveral Carp out of a Pond ——Yeſterday a Woman was committed to Newgate by Juſtice Groſe, on the Oath of Elizabeth Hatfield, for ſtealing Stays and Shirts.——The ſame Morning Sir John Gonſon, and ſeven or eight more Juſtices of the Peace for Weſtminſter, met at Covent-Garden Veſtry, and examined ſeveral idle and diſorderly Perſons, and reputed Thieves and Pickpockets, apprehended late the Night before by the Conſtables in ſeveral Parts of the Liberty of Weſtminſter on Search-Warrants; and after a long Examination, ſome of the moſt notorious of them were committed to Tothill fields Bridewell, and the reſt were diſcharged. One was order'd to be whipt, and paſs'd into Staffordſhire with a Vagrant Paſs.

Marriage. On Tueſday laſt Mr. Samuel Chorley, of Fleet-ſtreet, an eminent Dealer in China, was married to Miſs Perry, an agreeable young Gentlewoman in that Neighbourhood.

Deaths. On Tueſday Night died after a ſhort Illneſs, at her Houſe in Gerrard-ſtreet, St. James's, the Mother of the preſent Lord Baltimore.——The ſame Night died the Son of Mr. Pindar, a great Linnen-Draper near Aldgate.

FRIDAY, July 23.

They write from Chicheſter in Suſſex, that notwithſtanding the Vigilance of the Cuſtom-houſe Officers, and a great many Seizures made of late on thoſe Coaſts, the Smugglers are grown exceeding numerous and bold, and run Goods in Spight of all Oppoſition, to the great Detriment of the Revenue, and no ſmall Prejudice to the fair Trader.

Yeſterday Mr. Baron Thompſon made his Report to his Majeſty in Council at Hampton-Court of the eight Malefactors that were condemn'd the laſt Seſſions at the Old Bailey, viz. Thomas Granger, alias Corfield, John Davies, John Drinkwater, Bernard Fink, William Yates, alias Warrington, John Armſtrong, Nathaniel Lamprey, and Thomas Clarkſon; and all the eight were order'd for Execution on Monday next.

The ſame Day came on a Tryal at Guildhall before the Lord Chief Juſtice Eyre, between Mr. Caverner and others, Plaintiffs, and a private Inſurer, Defendant, relating to the Felix Snow, laden at Lisbon, bound to Madeira, and was taken by a Sallee Rover in 1721, carry'd into Sallee, and the Maſter and Sailors made Captives; the Jury found for the Plaintiffs, giving them 175l. Damage.

The ſame Morning about Two o'Clock a Fire broke out in a large empty Houſe belonging to Mr. Wilkinſon, in Flower-de-luce Court in Tooley-ſtreet, Southwark, which greatly alarm'd the Neighbourhood, tho' it was ſoon extinguiſhed: It was kindled by ſome Incendiary, who got into a Room up two Pair of Stairs, and laid a great Heap of Chips, and other Sorts of Fuel, in order to accompliſh the intended Villany. A Woman was ſeen to go acroſs the Room with a Candle in her Hand; but eſcaped in the Tumult when the Door was broke open by the Watchmen. About a Month ago there was a Fire broke out in the very ſame Houſe; and Yeſterday Morning about Seven, ſomebody wrote over the Porch, in Letters drawn with Chalk, I will come again.

On Wedneſday Night laſt, a young Man, who was an Apprentice to a Diſtiller in the Old Change near Cheapſide, hanged himſelf, being under ſome Diſcontent of Mind; and Yeſterday the Coroner's Jury ſat upon the Body, and brought in their Verdict Lunacy.

Yeſterday the Maſter of the Rolls committed a Clergyman to the Fleet, for marrying a young Gentleman, about 17 Years of Age, at Eaton School, and entitled to an Eſtate of 1500l. per Annum, to a Servant Maid; and at the ſame Time committed the Perſon who gave her in Marriage. His Honour had ſome Days ſince ſent Priſoner to the Fleet, the Perſon who pretended to be the Youth's Guardian, and who had given a Bond to indemnify the Parſon.

A Report has lately been ſpread of a Ship belonging to the South-Sea Company having been ſeized at Porto Bello, which Report has no other Foundation than this; The Company's Snow, St. James, Capt. Rogers, had landed ſome Negroes at Porto Bello, and was returning again to Jamaica, when the Spaniards ſending ſome Officers on board to clear her, they pretending to have found to the Value of about 400 Pieces of Eight, private Trade, occaſioned their putting the Captain and Snow under an Arreſt, which, as the Affair was ſoon cleared up, was as ſoon taken off, and the ſaid Snow is ſince ſafe arrived at Jamaica.

Capt. Michael Palliſter, of the Robert from Barbadoes, fell in with Sir Charles Wager's Squadron on Saturday laſt, about three Leagues from the Weſtward of the Start Point in Devonſhire.

They write from Cadiz, July 10. N. S. That they had Advice from the Court of Seville, that all the publick Differences are terminated to their entire Satisfaction, of which we hope there will be ſome convincing Proofs. It is reported, that on the Arrival of the Azogues, the Money brought by the Flotilla will be delivered; but if the Avizo, which we hear was diſpatched for the Havanna, from the Coaſt of Gallicia, arrives there in Time, it is thought they carried Orders for the Azogues to wait there the Arrival of the Galleons, and to come with them to Spain; and then to make one general Delivery.

Robbery, &c. Laſt Wedneſday Night Mrs. Jeram, a Waſher-woman in Five-foot Lane in the Borough, had her Houſe broke open, and a great Quantity of Linnen to the Amount of 45l. the Property of others whom ſhe waſhed for, ſtolen from her, and the Rogues made off with their Booty undiſcover'd.——Yeſterday a Man was committed to Newgate by Juſtice Manley, for ſtealing three Holland Shirts in Cherry-Tree-Court, near Grub ſtreet.——The ſame Day a Woman was committed to New Priſon in Southwark by Juſtice Welſh, for picking one Mr. Kellet's Pocket of one Guinea and ſome Silver.

Preferment. Yeſterday there was a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordſhips were pleaſed to appoint Lieutenant Butler to be firſt Lieutenant of his Majeſty's Ship the Captain, a third Rate, lying at Portſmouth.

Marriages. Andrew Searle, Eſq; a Barriſter of the Middle-Temple, (Son to Capt. Searle of Epping in Eſſex) was married a few Days ſince to Mrs. Anne Bedell, the youngeſt Daughter of Mr. Bedell, late an eminent Scrivener, with whom he had 10,000l. Fortune.——Yeſterday Morning Samuel Shirley, Eſq; was married to Miſs Sophy Willey, a celebrated Beauty.

Deaths. Yeſterday Morning about One o'Clock died in Child-bed the Lady of Ambroſe Page, Eſq; at Mr. Page's Houſe in Duke-ſtreet, Weſtminſter.——Laſt Week Mrs. Grace Chieveley, Siſter to John Chieveley, Eſq; a Juſtice of the Peace for the County of Eſſex, died at her Brother's Seat in Thaydon-Garnon.——Yeſterday Morning died at his Houſe at Stratford in Eſſex, Mr. Thomas Salway, an eminent Turky Merchant of this City, in an advanced Age: He is ſaid to have died worth 150,000l. the Bulk of which falls to his Son, one of the Directors of the South-Sea Company.——The ſame Morning early, died Mr. Stephens, Veſtry Clerk to the Pariſh of St. Botolph Aldersgate.

FOREIGN NEWS.

HAGUE, July 20. N. S. Private Letters from Paris aſſure us, that the Cardinal de Fleury had repreſented to Count Kinſki, the Emperor's Ambaſſador, that in all Reaſon the Crown of France ſhould be made acquainted with the Tenour of the Treaty of Commerce for the Engliſh and Dutch Nations in the Auſtrian Netherlands: A Satisfaction, he ſaid, which could not be deny'd her, becauſe according to the Conventions made between their Imperial and moſt Chriſtian Majeſties, the French ought to enjoy the ſame Privileges and Advantages, as Nations the moſt favoured. Letters from Vienna inform us, that the Return of the Expreſſes ſent by the Engliſh and Spaniſh Miniſters to their reſpective Courts, is expected with the utmoſt Impatience. Mean while, the frequent Conferences which thoſe Miniſters have, not only between themſelves, but alſo with thoſe of his Imperial Majeſty, leave no room to doubt but Matters are in very great Forwardneſs for the pure and ſimple Acceſſion of Spain to the Treaty of Vienna. The pretended Proteſtation of France, which has been handed about at Vienna in the Latin Tongue, occaſioned the holding of a Cabinet Council at Prince Eugene of Savoy's. It was long in Debate, what could induce that Court to take ſuch Meaſures; but in ſhort, without determining this Point, it was agreed, that the French have more Intrigues in hand, and better ſecret Intelligence than People were aware of. The Reſult of that Council was, to be every where upon their Guard; and a Courier was diſpatched to Count Kinſki at Paris, with Letters concerning that Affair: But we cannot yet ſay any Thing as to the new Orders with which that Miniſter is ſaid to be charged on the Part of his Imperial Majeſty. It is nevertheleſs certain, that Incidents of this Sort unite the Court of Vienna the more firmly to England, in Proportion as their Diſtruſt of France increaſes: And hence we think it long till we hear the States-General have filled up their Blank in the new Treaty. We are even aſſured, that his Imperial Majeſty, apprehending ſome Chicane on the Part of France, has reſolved to comply with every Thing that is in his Power, without prejudicing his own Rights and thoſe of the Empire, to give their High Mightineſſes an entire Satisfaction. So that, upon the whole, we have all the Reaſon in the World to flatter ourſelves, that Count Sinzendorff's Courier will bring us a ſatisfactory and deciſive Anſwer to the Difficulties or Demands contained in the Ultimatum of this Republick. The Pope's Nuncio at the Court of Vienna is continually teazing his Imperial Majeſty to be Mediator of the Differences which have ſo terribly embroiled the Court of Rome with that of Sardinia: But hitherto his Imperial Majeſty has not declared his Mind as to the ſaid Mediation. However, if we may judge by Appearances, the Emperor, who has no great Reaſon to be fond of his Holineſs, will leave him to extricate himſelf as well as he can, without concerning himſelf with his Affairs.

Conſtantinople, June 15. N. S. The Perſian Chan or Prince, who in the Battle fought laſt April near Erivan, had the Misfortune, among a great many others, to be taken Priſoner by the Turks, having been conducted hither, was at firſt very kindly received by the Sultan: But their Friendſhip was very ſhort-lived; for the Grand Seignior having done that Perſian the Honour to hold a Converſation with him about the Affairs of his Country, and having asked him, among other Things, whether his Maſter Schach Thamas would be content with the Conqueſts he had already made, the Captive Chan reſolutely anſwered him, No; but he might depend on it, the Schach his Maſter deſigned to conduct his Army to Scutari on the other Side of the Arm of the Sea, in Aſia Minor, over-againſt Conſtantinople. Which bold Anſwer the Ottoman Emperor took ſo much in Dudgeon, that without Regard to his Character, he immediately ordered him to be beheaded before the Windows of his Apartment. Moreover, the Sultan being informed, that the Ambaſſador upon the Road hither from Schach Thamas, had it only in Command to compliment his Highneſs upon his Acceſſion to the Ottoman Throne, without any other Commiſſion; and that he had not demanded the uſual Paſports for himſelf and Attendants, ſo that he might be looked upon as a Spy; the ſaid Ambaſſador was thereupon arreſted at Nicomadia, where his Credentials and Preſents were taken from him, and he was ſent on board a Galley to the Iſland of Tenedos.

Hague, July 27. N. S. All our Letters agree, that the French are very buſy in forming and renewing their Alliances: That with Denmark is done: In Sweden, as well as in Switzerland, they are in Negociation; and it is well if they have not too good an Intelligence at ſome Courts of Germany.

Paris, July 25. N. S. The 8000 Men ordered to the Sea Coaſts, are gone into Garriſon at Calais, Dunkirk, Ardres, S. Omer, Bergues and Gravelines. The Heats being immoderate, and the Drought continuing, the King does not go ſo often a-Hunting, as he uſed.

Hague, July 24. N. S. Notwithſtanding the States of Holland are now aſſembled, yet we hear very little Talk of the Acceſſion of this State to the Treaty of Vienna: The Reaſon of which we take to be, that they wait the Arrival of the Courier ſent by Count Sinzendorff to Vienna, with the Ultimatum of the States-General, whoſe Return muſt be very near at hand, unleſs the Conſideration of his Diſpatches was ſtrangely poſtponed by the Imperial Court, which there is no Ground to ſurmiſe. Mean while, ſome imagine the States-General are not in Haſte to come to a Definitive Reſolution upon this Subject, chooſing rather to ſee more clearly into the Views and Deſigns of France, which has put all her Secret Springs in Motion.
